

BRONZE

2009 / bronze + cherrywood / 35 x 10 x 10

---

A serie handcrafted bronze statues with as the main theme 'transitoriness'. An alienated image arises by combining elements that represent youth, beauty and perfection with elements that represent transitoriness, vulnerability and imperfection. The female figures are placed on a pedestal, naked. They become a curiosity, unintentional in the centre of interest. A project about exposure, vanity, desolation and evaorated desires.
